Dearest Mamma J,

First and foremost, I am so grateful to God for having you in my life.

I first met you during summer 4 years ago. You were kind and loving, still to this day. You took me with open arms, treated me with love and care,

Your children.
forever

like I am one of
For that I am

Thank you for everything and for being a wonderful second mother to me. I love my second family. Thank you for our graduation party and our graduation gift - trip to Europe. We will treasure it forever. Thank you Mamma J. You are forever in my heart. Regardless what's going on with the school, they don't know you like I do. You are the best and the greatest mother/person ever. You care so much for your children including me and that is something they can't take away from you. I am very grateful for you.

With sincere appreciation

I love you forever,
Mamma J
